You will need to provide a piece of legislation for each student and indicate if the legislation is Domestic, Economic, or International. As the coach, you want to make sure the legislation from your school is distributed across all three (3) categories.

METROFINAL TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

VIRTUAL

Please note carefully the following information regarding procedures for the Metro Final Student Congress tournament.

1. Please note that this is a two-day tournament for Arlington and one-day for Washington. Also, please note that actual registration numbers could create a need to change the actual session times on either day. As soon as we know from the registration numbers, we will let you know.
2. Please note that registration times are firm. We will begin promptly. If you are not there, we will begin without you and you will be dropped from the competition. A copy of the complete Metro Final tournament schedule is included herein.
4. Please ensure that students have their own copies of each piece of legislation in advance of the tournament. Do not expect the Parliamentarian to have to supply the legislation virtually during the tournament. Come prepared.
5. Students must participate in all preliminary sessions of the Metro Final tournament in order to be eligible for qualification to the Grand National tournament of the NCFL.
6. Tournament Format: see the planned schedule on the next page. Please note that actual registration numbers could create a need to change the actual session times on either day.
7. A seeding list determines who shall preside and who will be chairpersons of committees during the Metro Final tournament. Only those students with previous presiding officer experience this year will be eligible to act as presiding officers at the Metro Final tournament.
8. Please note that there will be multiple chambers in until the Finals Sessions. Students will not know their chamber assignments in advance to the competition. If students attempt to engage in pre-competition or pre-session communication in order strategize how session activities will occur, our expectation that these communication activities will be: (1) accessible to ALL who desire to participate; (2) conducted respectfully and in the spirit of collegial sportspersonship; and (3) inclusive of students from diverse backgrounds and identities.
